Road treatment operations for today limited to the top of the Lecht.

Generally no action planned over the next 24 hours with the exception of a Lecht summit patrol, which has a risk of overnight snow at this very highest point above sea level.

Famous for its colony of dolphins, fabulous beaches and more malt whisky distilleries than any where else in Scotland, Moray is a thriving area and a great place to live. Nestling between Aberdeenshire and the Highlands, Moray stretches from Tomintoul in the south to the shores of the Moray Firth, from Keith in the east to Brodie Castle in the west.
