Storytime volunteers

Cullen library is looking for volunteers to read stories to toddlers and pre-school children at weekly storytime sessions.

Library storytimes promote literacy and language development and provide youngsters with an exciting literary adventure.

Anyone who would like to volunteer should contact community librarian

Moray Council area stretches from Tomintoul in the south to the shores of the Moray Firth, from Keith in the east to Forres in the west. The council and its 4,500 employees respond to the needs of 92,500 residents in this beautiful part of Scotland, which nestles between Aberdeenshire and the Highlands.

Famous for its colony of dolphins, fabulous beaches and more malt whisky distilleries than any where else in Scotland, Moray is a thriving area and a great place to live.

Headquartered in Elgin, the administrative capital of Moray.
